November 2015

Watauga Valley Art League
November Meeting: Annual Christmas Card Project
Johnson City Memorial Park Community Center
From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Saturday, November 21, 2015.

Johnson City Senior Center will be distributing 125 food baskets this year at Christmas, so our November 21, 2015 program will be to make hand-painted or handmade cards. We will need to kick into high gear as this is almost double what we have needed in the past. This is an important community service project. Sometimes it may be the only card some of the senior shut-ins receive.

WVAL will provide the card stock and you bring whatever art supplies you want to work with to the meeting. It's not only fun to do but also to see what your fellow artists come up with. You can use rubber stamps, or collage from old card, watercolor, acrylic, colored pencil.... whatever you like to work with.

If you can't be at the meeting or want to do extras, you can pick up some cards and turn them into the senior center in early December. I will drop some stock off at Urban Bird's morning and evening classes as well.

Some of the WVAL artists' artwork may be seen at www.wataugavalleyartleague.com. If art is to nourish the roots of our culture, society must set the artist free to follow his vision wherever it takes him.
